Summary:

Billy and Steve have a nice little night together.

Restaurant

Right now everything was a little nice. Billy Hargrove had been fighting the fucked up monsters for awhile now, helping out Steve and the rest of the kids. He was trying to relax tonight; he and Steve had decided to go to out. Together. To a restaurant.

You know, like on a date.

"Isn't this nice?" Steve said as he sat down across from Billy in the booth. "Just the two of us eating something other than pizza for once?"

Billy wrinkled his nose slightly. "This place is way too fancy, Harrington. I don't know which fork to kill myself with."

Steve snorted. "Well at least you look nice."

"...I can't believe you made me button my shirt."

Was he still pouting about that? Hm.

"Don't worry," now it was time for Steve to smirk. "I can take care of the buttons a little bit later for you." He even winked.

"I am suffocating, Steven!"

Oh. He didn't get it yet.
